THREE TOWNS, ONE CIRCLE COMMUNITY CONVERSATIONS ABOUT RACE

The next meeting of the Christ Church Circle will be after Coffee Hour
Sunday, August 25, 2019, at 11:30 a.m.

As new chair of worship committee, Susan Heafield, I'd like to share a few new details about the order of worship, designed for consistency from week to week. There will be some prayers and music that are repeated each Sunday, the announcements will be placed within the worship service as part of the celebration of mission and ministry of this church, and there will be no acolytes. Each preacher/speaker and worship leader will have the freedom to choose parts of worship that connect with their preaching/speaking theme. During this time without a pastor, if you feel called to speak or preach to this congregation, you are welcome to sign up for a Sunday of your convenience. If you have any questions or comments, you are welcome to speak to any one of the committee: Susan Heafield, Beverly Heald, Jane King, Don Small, Brian Wren, and Warren King.

Opportunity! Meet our new United Methodist District Superintendent, Rev. Karen Munson, Sunday, September 8, 4-6 p.m. at Cornerstone UMC, 20 Jenkins Road, Saco, ME

A nice ring was found in the ladies room near the sink. It might've been left after the 7/7/19 service. It's gold with a singular stone. Please call the office if you've lost a ring.

The Congregational Church of Wells on 1695 Post Road (Route 1) invites you to a historic dedication on Saturday, September 14, at 11:00 a.m. They will gather at the church to dedicate their newly installed steeple and rededicate their historic 1831 George Holbrook bell crafted by a student of Paul Revere, which will officially ring for the first time in years on that day. An informal picnic lunch will follow on the church grounds, with proceeds going to their free community meal, "Soup's On."

It is the mission of Caring Unlimited to work with the community to end domestic violence in York County.

Their ability to help in the lives of families depends on contributions of the community.

Each school year Christ Church generously donates toward the purchase of sneakers for the students.

We will be collecting donations at coffee hour during the month of August as we have done in past summers.
